

Emina Nuredinoska, Head of Department

enr@mcms.org.mk

+ 389 2 3088 979

Born on April 16, 1974 in Žirovnica village. Graduated at the Faculty of Law in Skopje in 1997. From 2010 she holds master's degree on International Law - topic "Freedom of Association as human rights in the democracy" from the Law Faculty "Justinian 1" in Skopje. The focus of her activities is the institutional development and creation of an enabling environment for the civil society organizations, with special interest in the legal and fiscal framework for the civil society organizations, their involvement in policy making and promotion of the civil sector. She is a author of numerous analyzes in the field of civil dialogue at national and local level, transparent processes in policy making, public funding of civil society organizations, etc. She delivers training seminars on advocacy and lobbying, good governance in the civil society organizations, transparent processes in policy and law making. From December 2005 to September 2007, she was the team leader of the European Agency for Reconstruction (EAR) project "Technical Assistance to the Civil Society Unit in the Government of the Republic of Macedonia", tasked with preparation of the Strategy for Government Cooperation with the Civil Society Sector. During the period of 2008 to 2011 she coordinated the activities in two programs: Macedonia without Discrimination, and Good governance in Macedonia. Presently, she is managing the USAID Anti-Corruption Program implemented by MCIC. Since September 2010 she is head of the Department for Civil Society and Democratization in MCIC.